ANDOVER QUALITY

Andover's fame rests upon many foundations, upon broad scholarships and thorough training, upon loftiness of ideals, upon the calibre of the men graduated from her halls.

Those ideals explain the popularity of LANGROCK with Andover men, undergraduates and alumni; for, from the outset, LANGROCK has scorned to cater to any but the finest tastes.

LANGROCK clothes are tailored exclusively of the best imported cloths obtainable, with the constant aim of creating the proper attire of a gentleman.

EDITORIAL

IN attempting to avoid, as far as possible, the routine form of year book, we may, perhaps, have over-shot our mark. However, a miss only calls for a smile. In this edition our purpose has been to give an accurate and interesting account of the activities of the class of 1929, during its journey through school life. As the emblem of this class, the steam-shovel has been adopted, for to us it seems more nearly to represent our class individually. There are those who are ever striving to "dig in", while on the other hand, some of our fellow-mates are continually "letting off steam". Likewise, the steam-shovel portrays the tremendous power which is stored up in this great human machine, the class of 1929.

We, The Pot Pourri Board, extend our very sincere gratitude to all who have so unselfishly co-operated with us in publishing this 1929 edition. If success is attained, that alone will be our reward.

The Editor.

Junior Year

IN the fall of 1925, Andover Hill saw a new group of insignificant Juniors start out on an ascent which was to last four years, and which held in store countless experiences. When we look back to our first days here, how dark some of them seem, and how awestruck we were by the impressive "Old Men." Then too so many of these dignified upperclassmen were so kind to us, letting us carry anything and everything, as well as showing us most of the attics around the campus. We were also permitted to compete in such athletics as penny-pushing, although we failed to win our letters. On the first Saturday night the final torture, the Prep parade, was administered, and although many emerged bedecked with garlands of tomatoes and eggs, we were little the worse for wear. The Society of Inquiry finally took pity on us, and after a sincere reception, we settled down as true students of the school.

Samuel Phillips Hall had been in use but half a year, while George Washington Administration Building was in the first stages of construction. The campus too has undergone many changes since our first arrival.

Brett Osborne was the lone member of our class on the football team which had a fairly successful preliminary season, but terminated in a disappointing scoreless tie with Exeter. The soccer team was unbeaten, and ended their season in a like manner, by a scoreless game with Worcester.

We were then blessed with a typical New England winter of heavy snow and changeable weather, which was a new experience for many of us.

The hockey team successfully defeated our rival 2 to 1, McDougall being our only representative, while the basketball and swimming teams were prevented from meeting Exeter because of an epidemic. On the latter Westfall and Anderson brought our class into its prominence. We also contributed to a fine wrestling team through Parnall. In a thrilling race at the Boston Arena the relay team showed their heels to the Red and Gray.

Very few of us were interested in the social functions, such as the Proms, but in the publications and musical clubs several saw future possibilities and pleasures.

With the beginning of the pleasant spring term our interest turned to the track, baseball, and tennis. Under coaches Shepard and Shields the track team was very successful, smothering Exeter at the end of the year by a score of 85 to 41. In the final game of a fairly successful baseball season we were given a marvelous example of Andover-Exeter spirit in true story book form. Although Exeter came from behind in the last half of the ninth, with two outs, to win 7 to 6, few of us will ever see such a fine game again. The tennis team made a remarkable record, by completing their season undefeated.

We had now put behind us one year of varied realizations, and were looking forward to the time when we could put into practice all we had learned in an endeavor to attain our goal, four successful years as Phillips Academy Students.

L. B. Pitkin.

Lower Middle Year

WE felt very much on the crest of the wave at the beginning of our Lower Middle Year. Were we not old men, entitled to dominate the "preps" to our hearts' delight! But a few weeks' immersion in school life had a very chilling effect on our egos, and before long we began to see our niches in school life with a truer perspective.

Football was soon in full swing and absorbing the attention of the major part of the student body. The team completed a successful season by inflicting a 20 to 3 defeat on Exeter. The honor of the class was upheld by Osborne. The soccer team went through the season undefeated for the third successive year.

The winter term presented its usual fiendish New England weather and its long hard grind. The basketball team went through its schedule with remarkably few defeats, triumphing decisively over Exeter. The wrestling team had a successful season, meeting only one defeat. McGauley represented the class. The swimming team lost to Exeter but through no fault of our classmates on the team, R. G. Anderson, Brainard, and Westfall. The hockey team had ill-luck with the ice and fared badly in the Exeter game. McDougall was the lone member from our class.

As the spring term came on, life took on a different hue. It was so pleasant to lie back and let our work slide that we often did so, though not always with an entirely happy aftermath. The athletes, however, seemed immune to this degeneration and were soon busily practising on the diamond and the track. The baseball team had a successful season though it was unable to bring home Exeter's scalp. The track men, however, had one of the greatest seasons in the history of the team. Exeter could show only 37 points to Andover's 89. Our representative was Moore.

The other activities of a non-athletic nature maintained their usual high standards. As Lower Middlers we were just beginning timidly to participate in them.

At last the year drew to a close. Its termination marked the rounding of the half-way mark. We felt measurably nearer to our goal and looked forward with the keenest anticipation to our status as upper classmen.

K. L. Rawson

Upper Middle Year

UPON returning from our summer vacation we could talk of nothing but the coming sesquicentennial celebration which was to be held the latter part of May in commemoration of the founding of our school one hundred and fifty years ago. It was going to be the biggest year of our school career and we trust that we played our part well as a class in making the year a successful one.

As soon as the perennial "prep" found where he could be the most comfortable at any given time we turned our attention toward football. Coach Shepard was badly handicapped by losing a large proportion of his team by graduation the preceding spring, but nevertheless set out to continue his good record against Exeter to whom his teams had never lost. The team lost to Harvard, Dartmouth, and Yale on successive Saturdays. When the Exeter game appeared in the Boston Herald and other pro crimson newspapers we found ourselves very much on the short end of the odds. Exeter had an admittedly better team, but as usual the favored failed to win and we held our stronger rivals to a 0 to 0 tie. Our class was represented by Captain-elect Osborne, Houston, Westfall, and Newton. The soccer team went through its fourth consecutive undefeated season having but one goal scored against it during the entire season which closed with a 5 to 0 triumph over Worcester Academy.

Although most of us harbor little affection for the raw winds and sleet storms of a New England winter we were forced to admit that the winter of that year was quite comfortable. Nature was kind to us perhaps because she thought it was best for us to save our energy for the coming celebration. I am sure, however, that her kindness was not due to respect for New England's colonial ancestry. As Mendel tells us, "the seed of a prize tree does not always win a blue ribbon". At any rate we paid somewhat for our physical comforts by losing to Exeter in three sports and winning but one. The relay team won very handily over Exeter but lost basketball, swimming, and hockey. 1929 was represented by Captain Westfall and Anderson on the swimming team, Clark and Rugg on the hockey team; Drick, Elderheimer, Dorman, and Mettler on the basketball team. The wrestling team went through a very successful season losing but once against a heavier team composed of the Harvard second varsity.

With the coming of spring we found studying doubly difficult because of the proximity of the celebration. Of the celebration itself and its significance I am scarcely able or eligible to write, but I assure those who read this page that the class of 1929 most certainly appreciated the honor that was bestowed upon them when they were counted as Phillips men. As part of the program of the last day of the celebration the Exeter track meet was held which we won by a large score of eighty-three and one-half to forty-three and one-half. It was indeed a fitting climax for the celebration. A few days later in a thrilling baseball game Exeter beat us by one lone run.

Unlike most classes we looked forward to our senior year with a slight degree of indifference, if such is possible in Andover. The splendor and meaning of the sesquicentennial year temporarily clouded our vision, but because we were but immature beings and consequently easily impressed, we soon recovered from our stupor in mid-summer and looked forward to another year at Andover.

J. R. Miller.

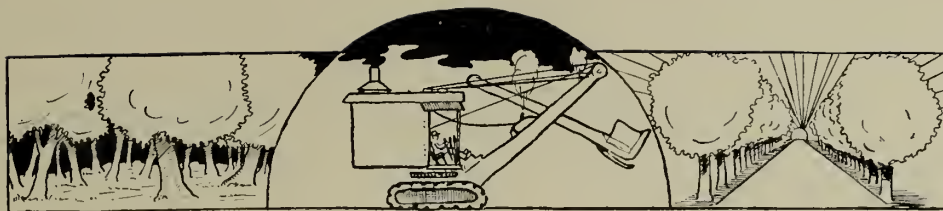

Senior Year

OUR Senior year was ushered in, as usual, by a rush to the fence, and by an enthusiastic use of other privileges. This was our first taste of authority, and we made the most of it. After a disappointing preliminary season, the football team covered itself with glory by defeating Exeter 18 to 0, 1929 being represented by 17 of the 32 letter men, including Osborne, Manager Pitkin, Westfall, Wright, Kidder, Williamson, Jackson, Chaffee, Mettler, Chickering, Ederheimer, Houston, Lindenberg, McDougall, Newton, and Rogers. The soccer team failed to continue its 4-year winning streak, but shaded Exeter, 1 to 0, Bannon and Benner, both '29, being Captain and Manager.

During the term that followed, an epidemic of measles that caused the cancellation of the swimming meet and basketball game with Exeter failed to check the interest of the school in the other activities presenting themselves. Moderate success was achieved in the matter of publications and winter athletics, although the hockey team suffered a severe setback at the hands of Exeter. On this team 1929 was represented by Captain McDougall, Manager Gordon, Bachman, Jackson, Williamson, and Kellogg, and on the wrestling team by McGauley, Manager Bannon, Byrne, Rowland, Cratt, Trexler, Keyser, and Barrows. On the basketball team, Dorman, Manager Mason, Chaffee, Mettler, Drick, Ederheimer, and Page were 1929's members, and on the swimming team, Westfall, Manager Lasater, Anderson, Gordon, Jameson, and Mooney. A feature of the non-athletic activities was the renewed interest in debating, 80 to 100 students attending the Philo contests regularly.

As for the spring term, we can only wish the best of luck to the teams representing the school in baseball, track, golf, and tennis. When we leave Andover in June for our various colleges, we trust that we shall have left behind us a record that will earn us a place in the memory of Phillips Academy and those associated with it.

MUSICAL CLUB OFFICERS

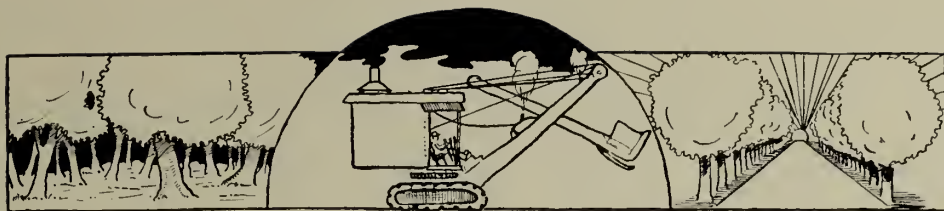

THE Musical Clubs went through another very successful year, and boast of an extremely large membership.

The usual try-outs were held in September, and it did not take Dr. Pfatteicher and Mr. Baker, who succeeded Mr. Handley as Mandolin instructor, long to form some excellent organizations.

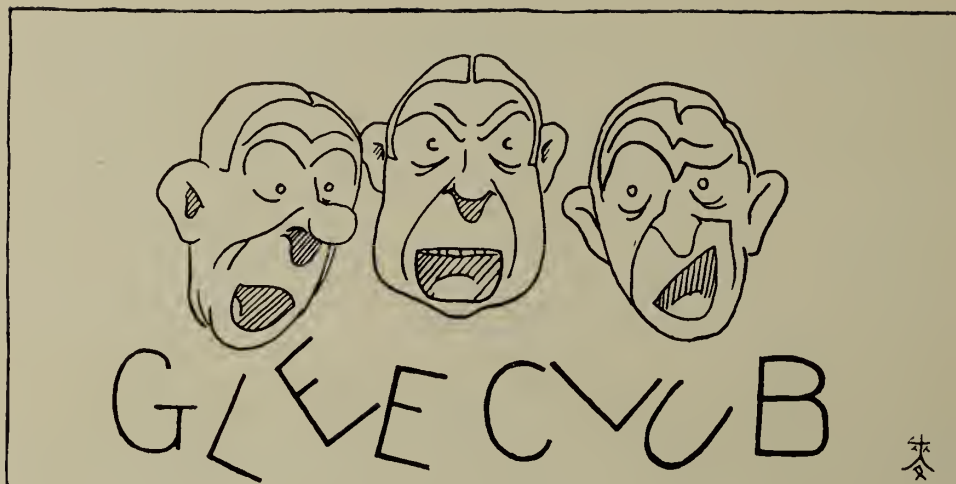

The first concert was held at Rogers Hall in December, in which the Glee Club, Mandolin Club and Orchestra participated.

No concerts were held during the Winter Term, but some excellent musical entertainments were given by such artists as Mme. Schumann-Heink, the London String Quartet, and others.

During the Spring Term, the Glee Club will hold a combined concert with the Bradford Glee Club. The return-dance with Rogers Hall will be held some time in May, during which month the annual Andover-Exeter concert will take place. All the organizations except the Jazz Band, which has furnished excellent music at tea dances, will take part in this concert.

ORCHESTRA

THIS year the Dramatic Club gave its annual winter performance in George Washington Hall on March 16. The play chosen was "The Haunted House" by Owen Davis, which was very popular when produced professionally in New York in 1924. The play was a comedy melodrama in three acts, concerning the adventures of a newly married couple in a haunted house to which they had come for their honeymoon.

The cast:

Jim Morgan (the tramp)	P. K. ALLEN
Emily Driscoll (the bride)	R. M. DAVIS
Jack Driscoll (the groom)	D. H. MORRIS
Dan Grogan (the detective)	A. KIDDER, 2d
Thomas (the chauffeur)	R. L. GWINN
Desmond Duncan (the author)	K. R. LUDLAM
Helen Duncan (his wife)	N. T. CLARK
Isabel Carter	C. W. WILLIAMSON
Ezra Nestle (the constable)	E. P. MOORE
Ed White (the milkman)	G. S. HAYES
Edward Evans (Emily's father)	W. A. RILL

This year, for the first time in the history of the Club, the students designed and built the scenery, thus making the entire production an undergraduate enterprise. This was successfully done by B. M. Gelder and D. P. Davies, Jr., ably assisted by W. T. Reed, T. M. Adams, G. S. Hayes, and D. P. Wilson.

Back: A. Y. ROGERS, A. M. ROGERS, MOORE, LUDLAM, WILLIAMSON, CALAHAN, GORDON.
Front: DAVIS, HAYES, CLARK, MORRIS, ALLEN, RILL, GWINN.

In the autumn of 1824 Horatio B. Hackett with three of his closest companions organized "The Philomathean Society", a club whose purpose was "mutual improvement" along literary lines. At first it had many of the characteristics of the present-day fraternities, for, in fact, it was founded as the rival of the then potent Social Fraternity. These features, however, were later abandoned, and the organization was opened to the school at large. In the earlier years of this institution all forms of literary endeavor received equal emphasis. As it progressed, however, more and more attention was paid to debating, and finally the society came to devote itself exclusively to this medium of expression. Since its establishment it has waxed and waned according to the energy and ability of its proponents. At some times it has had as many as a hundred and thirty members, while at other times it has dwindled to less than thirty.

This year Philo has greatly increased in importance and interest, and seems to have regained all its former prestige. Last year attendance and enthusiasm at the meetings were very great, but this year they were even greater. Much credit and praise is due to the officers, Newton, Hayes, and Davis, and to the faculty advisers, Mr. Heely and Mr. Wilkinson.

For the third year the club was divided into two groups, under the direction of Davis and Hayes. The first two meetings did not arouse much interest, but then the number of students present jumped from 60 to 80, and then three successive debates attracted over 100 fellows. A wide variety of subjects was discussed, such as the war debt, the immigration problem, science versus religion, capital punishment and prohibition. Two comparatively new features were added this year, namely, having debates in the spring term, and having debates of closer interest to the school, for example: Resolved that "non-ex" should be abolished. There may also be a debate with Huntington School, but no definite date has been set as yet.

SOCIETY OF INQUIRY

-John M. Murray-

THE Society of Inquiry, the student religious organization, which was founded in 1833 as a missionary society, but had its name changed to the present one in 1839, went through another fairly successful year. Up to the time of the war, the Society had been very active, but the war deadened all interest in it, and it is only now that the student body is beginning to grasp its significance more fully.

After holding the annual reception for new men in September, the executive board arranged a very active program for the year's work. An exchange of speakers was arranged with many leading preparatory schools and colleges. In March a delegation was sent to the Preparatory School conference at New Haven.

The Society was very fortunate in being able to have several very eminent speakers such as the Rev. Allyn K. Foster and Mr. Leonard, who lectured on Toc H.

Mr. Vaughan acted as the Society's faculty adviser throughout the year.

THE Open Door Committee, although not much in evidence on the Andover campus, performs a very important task in connection with the regular athletic routine. Theirs is the duty of arranging for the meeting, transportation, and entertainment of all visiting athletic teams. The committee is composed of five seniors. In the spring two upper middlers are elected to take care of the extra work, and they form the nucleus of the next year's committee.

The work is especially exacting during the winter and spring terms, and the men who serve deserve much credit. Mr. Roth, who has been the faculty adviser since 1923, has given a great deal of attention and aid to this organization.

PHILLIPIAN

THE Phillipian last year successfully passed its fiftieth year as the Academy bi-weekly newspaper. Although hampered considerably because of the lack of interest shown by the student body, the paper has successfully maintained its hold over a definite part of Andover life.

The 1928-29 Board was capably led by J. W. Bannon as Editor-in-chief, while the business end was under the competent guidance of J. Q. Newton, Jr. Not enough praise can be given to the individual members of the board for their excellent co-operation in the publishing of the school paper, and we wish to extend our congratulations to them and our best wishes for their success.

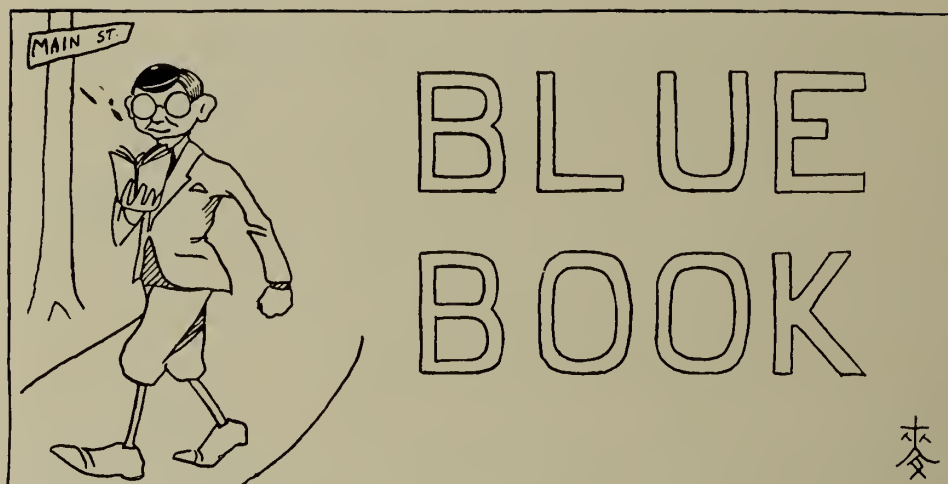

AN Andover Annual was first published in 1892 and for one year was called the Masque. The publication that year proving no great success, a new name was adopted, and the Pot Pourri, as it has been known ever since, has attempted each year to present a single volume containing an accurate account of all undergraduate activities and other extra-curricular work with special emphasis on the records and statistics of the senior class.

T. M. Lasater is Editor of the 1929 Pot Pourri, with G. C. Gordon as Business Manager, and John Murray as Art Editor. The Board hopes that such changes as have been made will be an improvement to the publication, which has especially endeavored to attain accuracy and completeness.

THE BLUE BOOK BOARD

THE Blue Book first made its appearance in 1921, and since that time has undergone comparatively few changes in content or appearance. One or two, however, may be noted. In 1925 the school map was added to the miscellaneous contents of the book, and in 1927 a constructive but incidental revision by the Editor-in-Chief cut out many pages of unnecessary material.

The Blue Book is the student handbook of various facts issued at the opening of each school year to every member of the student body. Its main purpose is to give to men who are entering the institution for the first time an idea of what the school stands for and of the school life itself.

Football

At the opening of the football season last fall there appeared favorable indications of a successful team—indications that were conclusively proven by the outcome of the Andover-Exeter contest. Coach Shepard and his able assistants were provided with a number of promising new candidates in addition to seven returning letter men and other members of the last year's squad. The team, however, working as a unit, required considerable practice in preliminary games against heavier and more experienced college freshman teams, in which the Blue team was afforded no great opportunity for exhibiting its offense.

Andover easily defeated Tufts Freshmen by a score of 18 to 6 in the opening game of the season, but lost the next game, however, 20 to 0 to a much heavier team from Harvard.

The game with Lawrence High School was undoubtedly a surprise to both teams. Andover scored exclusively in the first quarter. Lawrence in the second, half both teams, fighting persistently, managed to hold their opponents scoreless, leaving the final score 12 to 7 in favor of Lawrence.

Andover then lost on October 20 to the powerful Dean Academy team, one of the strongest in New England, with the score 19 to 0.

One of the best played games of the season was against Yale Freshmen, when the Yearlings with three former Andover men in their lineup defeated Andover 14 to 0.

The last preliminary game was played November 3, on a slippery field and in the rain, against New Hampshire Freshmen. Andover lost 6 to 0.

The annual Andover-Exeter football game was played this year on November 10 at Andover. This contest, which was won 18 to 0 by the home team, was the ultimate goal of the Andover season, and the year 1928 marked the second victory for the Blue in the last three years. In the first half there was much punting on both sides and little definite progress for either. The second period, however, found an Andover team that was determined to score and score decisively. It did both. Near the end of the third quarter, after Andover's timely recovery of an Exeter fumble, by a brilliant pass the ball was put on Exeter's one-yard line. It needed but one play to carry the ball over the line for the first touchdown, and then, through Kimball's spectacular blocking of two punts, two more touchdowns were scored, one by Kimball, the last by Westfall.

Baseball

Coach Woodruff had a very discouraging outlook for his first season as baseball coach. There were three returning lettermen, of whom Captain Jones only was eligible. But Kimball and Frank from last year's squad, and Mettler and Chapin, all showed up well in practice. With these men as a nucleus, the Blue team went through a very mediocre season, but held back a highly-rated Exeter team, to lose only 1 to 0.

Andover started the season well with a 16 to 5 victory over Boston University Freshmen, in which game Chapin hit a home run. Then the team lost to Cushing 6 to 2.

Next the Blue beat Princeton Freshmen 8 to 7 in a six inning game, but lost to St. John's 13 to 0. It is sufficient to say that in this game the Andover batters got but two hits and struck out twelve times.

In the next game, with Dartmouth Freshmen, Wing pitched well after the first inning, but the Blue lost 6 to 5. Slader, a letter man from last year, who had just become eligible, pitched a good game against Yale, but Andover lost in the tenth inning 6 to 4. Eight errors by Andover did not help Slader's cause.

Harvard Freshmen, with very good pitching, next defeated the Blue 4 to 0 in a rather interesting game. After two weeks of rest on account of bad weather Andover lost to Tufts Freshmen 9 to 5; Batchelder starred with three hits. In the last preliminary game Andover easily beat Lynn General Electric, a newcomer on the schedule, 19 to 2. The team played so well that hopes were high for a victory the next week in the annual game with Exeter.

On Saturday, June 9, the Andover student body went to see a pitchers' battle and a well-played game. Coombs was too good for the Blue batters, giving only two hits and striking out eighteen men. Exeter scored its lone run on a rather lucky fielder's choice in the fourth inning. Later on Jackson kept the Red and Gray from another run by a beautiful throw from center field to catch a runner trying to score from third base.

The following men received letters: Captain Jones, Manager Greenough, Captain-elect Kimball, Slader, Chapin, Frank, Mettler, Batchelder, Jackson, and Page.

Track

Last year Andover's track team went through another very successful season. The field events were again very strong, and the Blue athletes showed up very well in the running events. Captain Avery was the outstanding star of the season, averaging about twenty points a meet.

To start the season right, Andover administered a severe defeat to the Harvard Freshmen on April 19 by defeating them by the overwhelming score of 82 to 44. Harvard could take first place in only four events, namely—the 100-yard dash, the 440, the mile, and the javelin.

Two days later, Andover followed up this victory by defeating the M. I. T. Freshmen 90 1-2 to 26 1-2. The Freshmen could secure a first in only the 100-yard dash.

On April 28, the Yale Freshmen came up to Andover, but owing to the bad weather the meet could not be held, and an informal meet was held in the Case Memorial Building.

On the following Saturday, the Blue team journeyed to Cambridge to participate in the Harvard Interscholastics. The Blue won handily by a score of 59 1-2 and secured six first places. Captain Avery was the high scorer in the meet, taking first place in the 220-yard dash, the high jump, and the broad jump, and third in the discus.

Andover continued in her winning streak on May 12, when she sent Worcester down to defeat by a score of 99 to 26. The visitors were able to win only the 120-yard high hurdles. Captain Avery again led in the scoring with 20 points.

On the following Saturday, the Blue track team brought the Sesquicentennial Celebration to a fitting close by defeating Exeter 83 1-2 to 42 1-2 in spite of the poor weather conditions. Captain Avery was again the individual star of the day by taking three first places and three seconds. Hoffman broke the existing hammer record with a throw of 178 feet 4 inches.

On May 25, the Andover team met with its only defeat of the season at the hands of the Dartmouth Freshmen who were a stronger team than the Blue. The Freshmen won by a score of 68 to 58, but Captain Avery was the high scorer.

OUR 25th REUNION

Hockey

Mr. Vaughan in his first year as hockey coach had five returning letter men and several from last year's squad on whom to base his team. He turned out a fairly good group which, although slow in getting started, showed up better toward the end of the season.

After three days of practice on the ice Andover lost the first contest to Arlington High School 1 to 0. On account of poor ice and little teamwork the game was rather slow. Jackson and Fawcett played well. In the next game with M. I. T. Freshmen the Blue lost 3 to 0. The Andover skaters showed good co-ordination at first, but grew careless toward the end of the game. Jackson and Fawcett again starred. The following game with Worcester was called on account of poor weather.

Then Andover met Melrose High School, one of the best school hockey teams around Boston, and did well to hold them to three goals. The Blue showed much improvement in the forward line, while the defense, Neill, Captain McDougall, and Jackson,—were outstanding. The first victory of the season was won over Tufts Freshmen by a score of 3 to 1. Both teams showed rather poorly with little co-ordination. Wilson, playing part of the game in place of Neill at goal, did well.

The following contest with New Preparatory School was fast and rough, resulting in a 2 to 1 victory for Andover. The Blue won on account of better teamwork, more passing, and harder checking. The next game was quite the opposite, Browne and Nichols winning by 1 to 0. The Andover skaters were disorganized during most of the game. Wilson substituted well at goal. In the last preliminary encounter Andover beat Belmont Hill School 1 to 0 on ice that was so poor that the skating itself was difficult.

On Saturday, February 9, in the Boston Arena, Andover met the Exeter sextet, one of the best school teams in New England. The Blue played well, but the experience and skill of the Red and Grey was too great. Exeter scored twice each in the first two periods and five times in the last. Bryant and Jackson played well for Andover, as did Neill, who had to be taken out in the third period on account of a twisted knee.

The following men received their letters: Captain McDougall, Manager Gordon, Captain-elect Neill, Bachman, Bryant, Fawcett, Gardner, Jackson, Kellogg, Rugg, Sherman, Williamson, Wilson, and Wing.

Swimming

The hopes for a successful season were high in the fall with seven letter men back including Capt. Westfall, R. G. Anderson, W. S. Kimball, Pickett, Fry, King, and Byington. This was Westfall's fourth year on the team and second year as captain. Anderson gave the most brilliant performances of the season, three times breaking his own backstroke record which he had established last year. Excellent times were made in the first trial meet in January.

The team opened the season poorly by being defeated 44 to 18 by the Boston Boys' Club on January 19. However, the next week the Andover team overwhelmed Dean's first swimming team 50 to 12. Anderson broke his record twice in these meets, doing 1 minute 8 3-5 sec. and 1 minute 7 4-5 seconds.

The next week, February 2, the Blue natators defeated the Huntington School team by the score of 48 to 14. On February 9, the Andover squad journeyed to Yale, where they were defeated by the 1932 aggregation 49 to 13. Anderson won the only first place, breaking his backstroke record again in 1 minute 7 3-5 sec.

On February 16, the Blue swimmers lost to the Dartmouth Freshmen 40 to 22. On the Dartmouth team were Cardozo and Jeffrey, two members of Andover's 1928 team.

The next two meets were against very strong teams, Brookline High School and Worcester Academy. In the first of these Andover was handicapped by the illness of several swimmers, but won 34 to 28. The Blue team made a good showing against the fast Worcester swimmers, but lost 34 to 25.

The Exeter meet, which would have proved to be very exciting and close, was postponed from March 9 to March 16 and finally cancelled because of the measles epidemic in Andover.

Soccer

At the opening of the soccer season last fall only six veterans from the sixteen of last year's championship team reported for practice. There were, in addition, very few returning members of the 1927 squad. In the face of this rather mediocre prospect Coach Ryley worked conscientiously with Captain Bannon to form a team which should continue to uphold the splendid previous record in soccer. They turned out a very successful team which lost in the letter game to Worcester by only one point.

In the first game of the season, scheduled September 29, the Andover team journeyed to Tabor Academy to play a hard fought tie, the score being 2 to 2. In this game several new men playing for Andover showed up well, and the coach had the opportunity of judging the merits of all the players.

Andover likewise played the second game to a 0 to 0 tie against the M. I. T. Freshmen. The weather conditions, however, were wretched, and the teams had to play most of the game in pouring rain.

Andover then won a decisive victory over Dean Academy by the score of 4 to 1. The entire Andover team played smoothly in this game and worked together perfectly.

The following Wednesday the Blue team met the strong Harvard Freshmen and played a game which resulted in a 1 to 1 tie. Both teams played well despite the soggy condition of the field and the high wind which might have proved a considerable hindrance to some teams.

On Saturday, October 27, Andover lost the first soccer game in four years. The Blue team was defeated, 4 to 0, by Bradford-Durfee Textile, a team which is composed of some of the best players in New England. Consequently, the defeat brought no disgrace but rather afforded the Andover team a great deal of valuable practice and experience.

The letter game with Worcester was played November 3, on a poor field. Early in the game Andover scored her only goal. Worcester then tallied twice, making the score 2 to 1 in their favor.

The following Wednesday Andover played Exeter in soccer for the first time, winning 1 to 0. In this game Captain Bannon played his usual steady and reliable game, and Kiddé, at goal, starred consistently. It is hoped that in the future this game will be the regular finale on Andover's schedule.

Wrestling

As Captain McGauley, star of the Andover wrestling team for three years, was the only returning letter man, Coach Carlson experienced considerable difficulty when the call for wrestling candidates was issued. However, there was a wealth of material available from last year's squad and from new men in school. Of the latter, Byrne, wrestling in the 125-lb. class, gave signs of promise at the beginning of the year and has showed up extremely well throughout the season. Due to illness and ineligibility the team varied considerably from meet to meet. Faced with a schedule which included four college freshman teams, the Andover men did not seem to come into their own until the last meet when the Blue defeated Harvard Freshmen, 14 to 11.

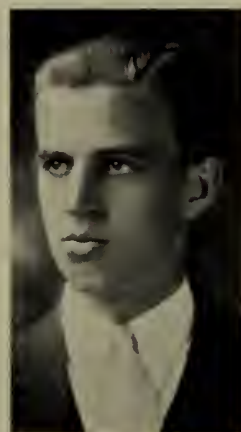

The first meet on January 26 was lost to Tufts Freshmen, an older and more experienced team, with the score of 12 to 8. Captain McGauley accounted for five of Andover's total score by winning a fall from his opponent. Barrows, wrestling in the 175-lb. class, won a decision, contributing three more points.

The second meet of the season was on February 9 against the M. I. T. freshman team. This meet, which Andover lost 18 to 15, was very close. McGauley, Byrne, and Barrows all won falls.

The following Saturday the wrestling team traveled to New Haven to meet the Yale Freshmen. Numbered among Yale's previous victories of the season were meets against M. I. T. and Brown Freshmen. Captain McGauley and Byrne were the only men on the Andover team to win their matches.

Andover won its last meet of the season by defeating the Harvard Freshman team, 14 to 11. McGauley completed his season undefeated by winning over his opponent in the 135-lb. class. Keyser emerged victorious from his first meet by winning a fall. Barrows and Escman both won their matches by decisions.

The men to receive their letters were: Captain McGauley, Manager Bannon, Rowland, Byrne, Eiseman, Walden, Craft, Trexler, Keyser, and Barrows.

Basketball

With the returning of Mr. Blackmer as coach, the prospects for a successful basketball season seemed very good, and sure enough, the Academy team came through the season winning eight out of eleven games played. A brand of basketball that was markedly above the average inspired the school at large to high interest in the games and kept the team itself fighting all through. Mettler was the most consistent grievance of the Blue scoreboard maker, playing a sensational game in most of the contests. Chaffee and Huppuch also showed up very creditably, as did Drick and Captain Dorman, who was barred from the game during the first part of the season by scholastic deficiency.

A victory in the first game, with Huntington, on Saturday, January 12, furnished an incentive which proved itself powerful in a defeat the following Saturday over Tufts Freshmen, 22 to 18. The latter game, however, was rather uninteresting, neither side showing any special faculty for sensational basketball, and both handicapped by numerous fouls. January 26, Dean Academy sent a team to Andover which was by reputation one of very remarkable merit. The Blue victory, 31 to 26, was, therefore, an exciting and especially pleasant surprise. The game was by far the most thrilling of the year, and the Blue men played as though inspired. Worcester engineered the first defeat of the season 37 to 28. Edstrom scored fourteen points, starring for the opponents, while Kellogg was Andover's stellar light with ten points.

On Saturday, February 2, the Blue came back for a 27 to 20 victory over Tabor Academy. Mettler shot ten points in the first half. St. John's was victorious in the second overtime period after a more or less mediocre game, with Mettler and Huppuch slightly outstanding for the home team. Harvard Freshmen met defeat 23 to 22 on Wednesday, February 13. Mettler was the main event in this fairly good game. Andover found Cushing no match for her the following Saturday, and Mettler and Kellogg shone while the team piled up 29 points to Cushing's 12. Wentworth also was easily overpowered, 35 to 18, and here Drick had his day, shooting miraculously from all parts of the floor to score fourteen points. Boston University Freshmen had only a mediocre team and lost 30 to 22 Wednesday the 27th. The only game away was at New Haven where a better-than-usual Yale team managed to defeat the Blue 40 to 45. Booth and Schane starred for Yale; Mettler for Andover.

The anticipated annual contest with Exeter was not played due to the prevalence of measles in Andover.

Tennis

Starting the season under the great handicap of having only two returning letter men, Captain Field and Smyth, the tennis team under the coaching of Mr. Kelly and Mr. Murray struggled through a very unsuccessful season, winning only one regular match. Lady Fortune made herself conspicuous by her absence except in this match and the latter helped to make up for a number of defeats.

When the first call for candidates was issued in the fall a large squad presented themselves for the preliminary tryouts. After the usual eliminating process the coaches finally succeeded in uncovering four promising candidates. Paine, Heath, Durell, and Neff. These men plus the veterans, Smyth and Field, formed the foundation of the team.

The first meet of the season, scheduled with Lowell High School, was called off on account of rain. The next on the program was with the Harvard Second. In this meet the lack of experience of the new men was shown, the Crimson men winning 8 to 1, with Durell the only Andover man to win his match. Again, in the following meet, the Blue went down to defeat before the strong Freshman aggregation from New Haven to the tune of 9 to 0. Next, when the Brown Freshmen were the opponents the meet had to be called before the finish, the yearlings in the lead 5 to 2. However, the following Saturday the Blue came back, overwhelming the weaker M. I. T. Fresh. 9 to 0. This time, as the score indicates, Andover completely out-classed her opponents but had the wind decidedly taken out of her sails when the following week the Harvard cubs shut her out 9 to 0. This match was followed by one with Newton High School and again the Blue met defeat, this time by 6 to 3. The meet with Dartmouth Fresh. had to be called on account of rain.

The following week the team traveled to Cambridge to compete in the Harvard Interscholastics. Here the Blue upset all predictions by winning first place with ten points against the nine gotten by Exeter and Newton High School who tied for second place.

The team, however, lost to the North Andover Country Club the following Wednesday by the score of 7 to 2.

In the final meet with Exeter the Blue met her last defeat 8 to 1. Captain Field and Smyth played beautiful tennis and won the only match for their team.

The following were awarded letters: Captain Field, Captain-elect Paine, Smyth, Barres, Heath, Durell, Evans, Manager Bates.

FENCING TEAM

IN 1924 fencing was begun in school as a club sport. Because of its ever increasing popularity the team was granted full minor sport privileges in 1926.

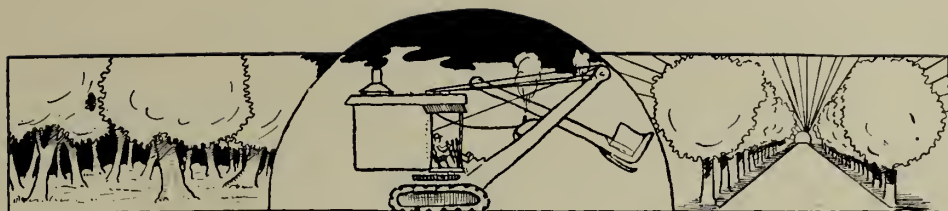

That season and the following two were only moderately successful. But this year was much different. From several members of last year's club teams who were coached by Mr. Peck, Mr. Barss turned out a team which would have had a very good record had not three meets been cancelled.

The first meet was with Providence High School, a newcomer to the schedule, whom Andover defeated 5 to 4. Both Captain Murray and Ludlam won two out of three matches.

The second contest was with the Boston High School of Commerce, our oldest rival and friend in fencing. They won 5 to 4. Ludlam distinguished himself by again winning two matches. As there is a chance of a return meet with this school, the Blue fencers hope to remove the stain of this defeat.

Two weeks later, in the meet with Harvard Freshmen the Andover foilsmen came through to win the first victory from them in six years, by a score of 5 to 4. Both Ludlam and Frame did well, winning two out of three matches.

The following contest was with the English High School. The Blue fencers swamped them 8 to 1. Frame won all three of his matches, and Ludlam his two; Captain Murray won one and lost one. The next two contests, a return meet with the Boston High School of Commerce and a meet with the Boston University Freshmen, a newcomer to the schedule, had to be called off on account of the prevailing sickness in school.

NOT much experimenting has been done this year, due to the remodeling of the club house and the transmitters. Some foreign stations have been communicated with, and the usual amount of American work has been carried out.

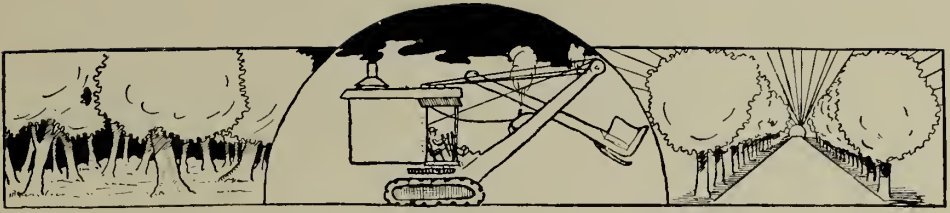

The new location of the station with the seventy-foot steel masts should increase the efficiency and dependability of the transmitter. In the spring term extensive radiophone tests will be made. It is also hoped to round out the total of countries worked to fifty before the year is over. At present the number stands at forty-six.

COOLIDGE TO HEAD ANDOVER

Ex-President to succeed Stearns as Principal of Suburban School

We have it on good authority that ex-President Calvin Coolidge will succeed Alfred E. Stearns as Principal of Phillips Academy, a school in Lawrence's prominent suburb, Andover. Here are a few of the changes in custom that will feature the new Headmaster's regime:

1. All expenses supporting athletic teams and eating-houses will be cut down.
2. The tuition fee will be doubled.
3. The scandals about oil in the Beanery coffee will be completely suppressed.
4. The Principal will speak at all services to avoid the expense of securing chapel-speakers.
5. There will be a daily silence of 15 minutes during the morning chapel, headed by the Principal.
6. Only Republicans will be awarded faculty positions.
7. The Gymnasium and all dormitories will be equipped with electric horses for purpose of exercise.
8. Cowboy suits will be worn exclusively on the campus.
9. Clothes-pins will be worn on all students' noses to preserve that Nasal Twang.
10. The Lawrence Telegram will continue to uphold the Freedom of the Press.

Aboard the S. S. Caldwell

(This weird anecdote is an excerpt from the pages of the diary of the King's Chamberlain, translated from the original French by Newton.)

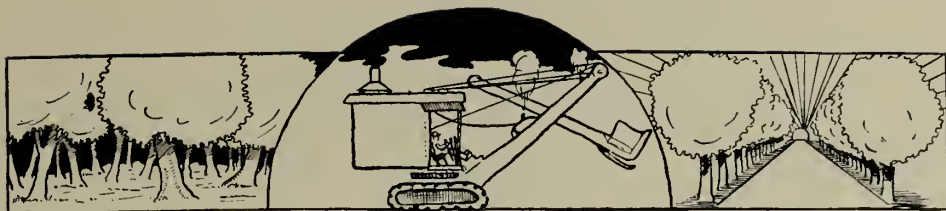

Returning from the Derby and the Chase at the Greenway was all Wright until the valiant Craft, Lindenberg, in a heavy Hayes struck a heap of clams with their Sheldons piled high on a Barclay. The Lindenberg was carefully Moored to the bar with a Weyerhaeuser made of Wickwire. On the Morrow Captain Osborne, a young Sampson, ordered the crew to land and follow the Redpath of coral to a Marsh which was Atkins to a strip of Woods. A Crane with a Crofoot in his mouth was standing amongst the Reeds as the men Forded the Marsh. With wheel Barrows they loaded the Stearns of the Lindenberg's lifeboats with Wood to Byrneas fuel. Meanwhile an unknown Person (the ship's Mason claimed it was Pitkin) was perched on a Ledyard with a White Birch rod in his hand and a Towle wound about his head, acting as a Bateman for the fishes. "Let's French Fry them!" was his continual cry. Suddenly a beautiful damsel, Keenly pursued by a single Dor-man and several stout Parsons, raced toward the Craft. "Kopper or Kidder!" ordered Captain Osborne from his Morris Chair, but to no avail for she slipped on the Redpath and plunged into the murky depths. The water was Ripley where she went down, and that day the jolly Rogers of many Briggs waved at half-mast.

A Few Lines on The Bewilderment

A knowledge of the facts of life must be attained in steps,
And many things there are, at first, that mystify the preps:
When R. P. Page walks out of class at half-past nine or so,
Surprised they murmur to each other, "Where does that guy go?"

They know this book, the Pot Pourri, costs three bucks and a half,
And though they feel it's worth the price, to read my stuff and laugh,
They look at T. M. Lasater, who corners all the dough,
And say, in tones of wonderment, "Where does that money go?"

The preps who sit in Benner's class and learn to garble Greek
Have noticed an injustice that continues week on week;
One fellow always just gets by, when other morons lag:
The preps, bewildered, mutter, "Where does Westfall get his drag?"

Faculty Hoem

A is for Archibald Freeman, who states
 That you needn't know names if you once get your dates.

B is for Benner, who cuts every week,
 And says there is nothing more harmful than Greek.

C is for Charlie, whose well-rounded puns
 Are laughed at by drag-seeking Andover sons.

D is for Drip, full of laughter and fun;
 The friendliest math teacher under the sun.

E is for Eaton, whose friends call him Pap;
 His algebra course is considered a snap.

F is for Freddie, a talkative horse,
 Who blows all the fuses in Samuel Morse.

G is for Graham, the fur-covered bard;
 His buddies say Jimmy's a bit of a card.

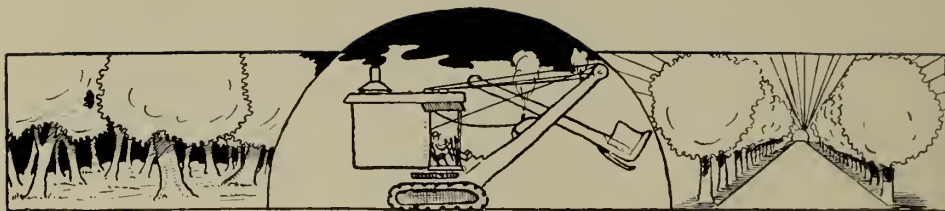

H is for Hopper, who stores up the coin;
 Who says old P. A. ain't got money to boin.

J is for John Homer, Never-say-Dye,
 A pleasant sartorial treat for the eye.

K is for Kenneth Cornelius Minard,
 Who says, "You can fly if you try; it's not hard."

L is for Larry, a trifle uncouth,
 But full of biology, vigor, and youth.

M is for Monty, a wise little gent,
 Who thinks that he knows where the walking-squad went.

N is for Newton, who understands much,
Of the teaching of French, and of Teutonic Dutch.

O is for Ossy, a young referee;
He doesn't mind Page's advice, since it's free.

P is for Page, who will stand no abuse
Of that time worn expression, "A skating excuse."

R is for Rocky, of countenance grim,
Who teaches the Andover students to thwim.

S is for Sides, with an eye like a hawk,
And the stuff to make even the walking-squad walk.

T is for Trask, whose hair has turned gray,
Refereeing the water sports over in Day.

V is for Vaughan, who shaves with an axe,
And claims he has muscles that never relax.

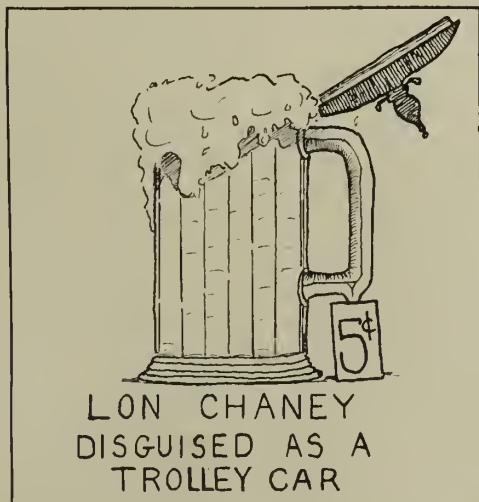

W, X, Y, and Z, are the letters
A poet receives for insulting his betters.

EDITORIAL

It seems to us that the time is ripe for an outburst of indignation upon the subject of honesty. Our attention was called to the growing inroads of this evil on modern youth by a statement in the New York Daily News:

"Out of five hundred kiddies who were asked if they would cheat on an exam, if unwatched, four hundred and eighty-nine replied, 'Yes.' Of the eleven who said, 'No', eleven could not speak English."

Things seem to have come to a pretty pass if eleven tots were so blinded by the god of honesty that they should have failed to give a satisfactory or sensible answer. If that sort of feeling is allowed to crop up here in Old Phillips, how will anybody pass the College Boards?

We think this instance will prove our point. Harold (Harry) Harrison, West Point Cadet, was sneaking into his tent one night with a large black and white animal under his arm.

"What have you there, sir?" challenged his tentative and dearest chum, Oscar Osipowitch.

"A sku— A cat, sir", stammered Harry. For this he received ten days in the guard house and the Governorship of the Philippines, which seems to prove something rather conclusively.

by Gabriel Snubbers.

SYNOPSIS OF THE STORY THUS FAR

Bill Meredith, a young desperado, the son of a rich Ohio banker, has just gone to work for the Owen Steam Laundry and has fallen desperately in love with Kate Owen, the daughter of Mr. Owen, who has just been arrested for fighting in a night club with Mr. Tom Saunders, the inventor of the Neva-wash stiff shirt. Elsworth Shapely, another suitor of Miss Owen, has just saved Bill's life because he (Elsworth) influenced the verdict of Judge Gray of the Ohio District Court, who was about to sentence him (Bill) to die for shooting at old Guy Parsons, the town cobbler, who had witnessed a love scene between Elsworth and Betty Crickard, a gay young girl also of Ohio. At the opening of the chapter, Bill is in Africa being pursued by Indians.

CHAPTER XXX — COURAGE

A large brown hand clutching a shining dagger reached out toward Bill. He rushed back in terror to cross the deep chasm by the thin rope bridge. One step he took, another,—a third. But one false step and——. His dusky pursuer reached the edge, and his sharp weapon parted one strand, another,—a third. Bill was almost across. Then——

RESULTS OF OUR POETRY CONTEST

1ST PRIZE

When Mr. Roth begins to talk,
I have a premonition
That pretty soon his trend of thought
Will turn to prohibition.

(Sent in by Ivan Ovelitch, age 9, Peoria, Ill.)

HONORABLE MENTION

Blessings on the Faculty:
They changed the "Non-X" rule,
And that's the only reason
Why I'm still here in school.

(Sent in by Buddy Jones, age 2, Elm St., Chelsea.)

RULES OF THE CONTEST

1. All poems must be in by midnight.
2. Put your poem in the envelope before you seal it.
3. No contribution will be received if the envelope has no stamp.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

No little excitement was caused around these parts when Bob Parnall, one of the big guns in School, was fired.

Jim Newton, our popular profiteer, stated at a recent Society of Inquiry meeting that money is not everything in life.

The other night Mr. Parmelee caught Bill Reed studying again. As this is the second offense this year, Bill had better watch his step.

Fem: "Who was that lady I saw with you last night?"

Sem: "That was my wife."

Al: "Don't you think the Infirmary is utterly inadequate?"

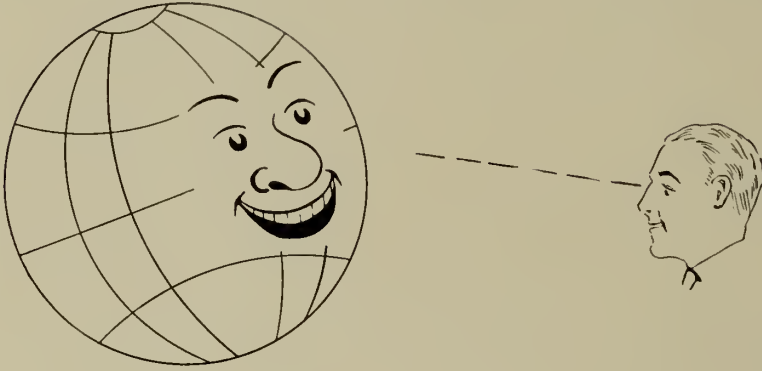

Doc: "Yes, it is rather measly."

ANDOVER'S GREATEST NEED

A BRIDGE

CAN YOU LOOK THE WORLD IN THE FACE?

Are You the Father (or Mother) of a Backward Child?

ARE YOU DOING RIGHT BY YOUR KIDDIES?

Let us be a mold for your child's character. Pour him in, and in four years we'll turn out a hard youngster, capable of resisting all that savors of honesty.

Success No Easy Matter

Without work no amount of talent, no amount of influence, will carry a man very far in this world. I am amazed at the point of view of some modern young men. They look at the successful men of the day as if they supposed success to be an easy matter—giving rich gifts and requiring little in return. I wonder what they would think if they could see the average day's program of one of the men they envy. Theodore Roosevelt left a correspondence that of itself involved more work than the average man does in his active life. Yet it represented only a small part of his activities.

The higher men climb, the longer their working day. And any young man with a streak of idleness in him might better make up his mind at the beginning that mediocrity is to be his lot. Without immense, sustained effort he will not climb high. And even though fortune or chance were to lift him high he would not stay there. For to keep at the top is harder, almost, than to get there. There are no office hours for leaders.

Your Gillette

will do the job of shaving quickly and thoroughly, during these fleeting student days ———

It will continue to do so for a lifetime.

Altho shaving conditions such as temperature, lather, time and conditions of skin and beard are different each morning, your Gillette Blade remains the one constant factor in each shave.

Eight out of ten American men count on the Gillette Blade to do its job well every morning. It does. Witness the smooth faces of American Men today.

Comfort Insurance

For the utmost in shaving comfort every day for a lifetime, use a New Improved Gillette Safety Razor.

An open letter to WILL ROGERS >< which clears up a mystery ><

MR. WILL ROGERS
Beverly Hills, California.

Dear Mr. Rogers:

A short while ago we read in a newspaper your statement to the effect that breakfast food was still a mystery to you. You are quoted as saying:

"They showed me through the breakfast food factories and I thought here is where I find out something about what it is.

"They showed me how the boxes were made and how they shipped them out, in fact everything but, so I leave here just as ignorant as the other one hundred and ten million."

Now we want to say in all kindness, Mr. Rogers, that where you made your big mistake was in not visiting the Grape-Nuts plant. If you had you would have left there knowing everything there is to know about this particular breakfast food—and a visit to the plant, Mr. Rogers, is an experience you would enjoy. We know you would.

First, you would see two different kinds of flour carefully blended. Wheat flour and malted barley flour—both milled from the plumpest, finest grains this country produces. Next you would see these blended flours mixed with pure artesian well water, yeast and salt, to form a smooth, perfectly kneaded dough. You would see this dough molded into huge puffy loaves and put into ovens for the first baking.

FIRST baking, Mr. Rogers—notice that! For, you see, Grape-Nuts owes its deliciousness and much of its unique health value to the DOUBLE baking it receives. First, the big loaves are baked. Imagine the fragrance when the enormous ovens are opened for the loaves to be taken out! After being cooled for several hours, the loaves are mechanically broken into irregular morsels. Then comes the second baking. Arranged on racks, the morsels are passed slowly through long, tunnel-like ovens, filled with moving, purified air. From this process they emerge gloriously golden-brown—marvelously crisp—with a richness of flavor that can't be described. A nut-like flavor, delicately tinged with the natural sweetness of malt sugar!

And now these morsels—these tempting morsels!—are ground into little golden kernels. Delicious kernels of healthful sweetness! Grape-Nuts.

Maybe it will also interest you to know that packed into these golden kernels are an astonishing number of things the body needs. Proteins for muscle and body-building. Iron for the blood. Phosphorus for teeth and bones. Dextrins, maltose and other carbohydrates for heat and energy. And the essential vitamin-B, a builder of appetite. In short, Grape-Nuts, eaten with milk or cream, is an admirably balanced ration! And it's one of the easiest foods in the world to digest.

In conclusion, Mr. Rogers, let us say that one taste will tell you more about the deliciousness of the Grape-Nuts flavor than one million words could tell. Won't you try a dish of Grape-Nuts tomorrow morning?

Sincerely yours,
POSTUM COMPANY, Incorporated
